

Our students out here in Northeast Colorado desperately need more band width and high speed to compete in our world today. Because we are teaching 21st Century Skills and teaching from the Common Core we have to have this basic technology available, and consistently working.